RESPONSE TO THE WORD

EUCCHARIST

CONFESSION

God's light fills our lives,
yet we are slow to share it with others.
Lord, have mercy.

By our baptism, we are marked,
yet we are hesitant to be light to the nations.
Christ, have mercy.

Forgive us, when we fail to live as Christ's Beloved Community.
Lord, have mercy.

PARDON

Our God, who is faithful and just, forgives our sins
and cleanses us all from all unrighteousness,
so that we become and belong to a community where all are welcome,
where all have a sense of belonging,
where all are bound and held together in love.

INVITATION

In tears, we carry out seed to sow;
in joy, we reap! We rejoice as we carry in sheaves.

SONG

In Our Sorrow | Words: Laurie Zelman, 2016 | Music: Mark A. Miller, 2016 | © 2022 GIA Publications | Reprinted under OneLicense 804650-E.

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

May the God of tears be with you.
And also with you.

Offer your hearts to the One who calls us out of death into life.

Unbound, we bring our hearts to our God of new mornings.

People of God, sing songs to the One in whom we hope.

We rejoice in God, who dwells in our souls.

Life breathes... Belonging (pg. 4)

Music & Worship Arts Week 2023

In that first moment, God of wonder, you cried out, 'Unbind creation and let her go!'
and flowers grew in the cracks of chaos,
blustery winds played talk through the forests,
lambs leapfrogged one another in the meadows.
Your hand came upon the dry dust of earth, and your Spirit breathed life into us.
You longed for us to be with you, but we allowed sin and death to lead us around by the nose. You called to women and men,
'Prophecy!' urging them to call us back. but we did not believe their words.
So you sent a certain man named Jesus, to cause new life to come upon us.
With those who have stood beside graves, and those who wait for signs of hope,
we sing our praises to you:

Holy, holy, holy are you, God of our shadowed valleys.
All creation hopes in you and waits.
Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is the One who calls us to new life.
Hosanna in the highest!

You are holy, Caresser of our souls, and Jesus is our Child, our Friend.
Seeing that those he loved were sick, he brought us healing.
Finding us wandering in despair, he showed us that our hope need never turn to dust.
Believing that you loved him, he went to the cross, for us.
And when he was in death's cold arms, you stood at the door of the tomb, crying out, 'unbind him, and let him go!'
and our Resurrection and our Life came forth for us.

Believing that he is the One who calls us to new life,
trusting that, by his tears, he takes away our pain,
we proclaim that mystery we call faith:

Christ died, taking away the sins of the world;
Christ was raised, taking away the power of sin and death;
Christ will return, taking us by the hand to lead us home.

Let your Spirit breathe upon us and these gifts of bread and cup.
May they be for us your body and blood,
vibrant with your life which makes us whole.
Seat each and every one of us together with you at your Table, O Christ of Peace.
And send us out into the world as holy pieces of peace.

You comfort your people; your Spirit binds us together
so that we may comfort each other.
I belong.

Jesus calms the stormy gales of our lives; Jesus speaks peace.
I am a holy piece of peace.

Jesus says, "I am the resurrection and the life" (John 11:25);
Jesus breathes life, and life breathes hope.
I am filled with hope.
